Policy on Recruitment on Anti Slavery and Human Trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our organisation. Our Anti-slavery and Human Trafficking Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all of relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra Benevolent Fund or are dealings with third parties.

We recognise the importance of maintaining constant vigilance to identify and address any issues associated with slavery and human trafficking in the world in which we operate. We remain committed to continuing to enhance our capacity to identify, prevent and mitigate any actual or potential risks in our area of operations.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 (Part 6) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It has been approved by the Board of Trustees and is signed by the charity's Chairman.
